Good Morning, Arrowhead High School!

Ah, 1950s sitcoms: a world where everything is perfect. Perfect families, perfect neighbors, and perfect... nuclear apocalypses?!. Arrowhead Drama's Spring Play the end: Three One-Act Plays (and the End of The World) will show you just how perfect the end of the work can be! These plays explore both humorous and dramatic takes on how humans react when presented with the possibility of it all falling apart. Shows are tonight, tomorrow, and Saturday at 7:00 pm. Tickets are available online through the Arrowhead website or at the door.
